Proposal type	Details
Regulatory proposals where no RIA is required	The regulatory proposals proposed to be progressed via the Domestic and Family Violence Protection Legislation Amendment Bill 2026 (the Bill) principally relate to police powers and administration, general criminal laws, and the administration of courts and tribunals. Under the Better Regulation Policy, these categories of proposals do not require regulatory impact analysis. Where relevant, potential impacts on stakeholders, including frontline services, will be monitored and inform ongoing implementation and evaluation activities.
Minor and machinery in nature	All other regulatory proposals contained in the Bill are minor and machinery in nature as they are either clarifications, or minor, technical or routine updates (no substantive regulatory or policy change).
